

MIT AWARDS CONVOCATION

The Awards Convocation is one of MIT's largest awards ceremonies, drawing on offices, departments, and people from across the Institute including the arts, athletics, student life, academics, alumni, staff, faculty, and students.

Below is pertinent information regarding the award, the award coordinator's name, the selection committee, and how the nominees are selected. If you have specific questions about an award please contact the award coordinator.

Award Name: Albert G. Hill Prize

Award Coordinator Title: Assistant Dean for Academic Excellence Programs and Program Coordinator for Academic Excellence Programs

Managing DLC: Office of Minority Education

Award is for: MIT Juniors and Seniors

How are nominations reviewed: Nominations are reviewed by a committee of OME Staff members.

Selection criteria: Must be juniors or seniors from underrepresented minority backgrounds who have maintained high academic standards and have made continued contributions to improving diversity, equity, and inclusion at MIT.

How are recipients selected: Through careful consideration of what is written in the nominator form, verification of community involvement and GPA, confirmation of academic year, as well as checking to see if nominee is a previous award winner.

Selection committee titles: Associate Dean and Director of the Office of Minority Education
Assistant Dean for Academic Excellence Programs
Program Coordinator for Academic Excellence Programs

Award Contact Email: awards-alberthill@mit.edu