The Awards Convocation is one of MIT’s largest awards ceremonies, drawing on offices, departments, and people from across the Institute including the arts, athletics, student life, academics, alumni, staff, faculty, and students.

Below is pertinent information regarding the award, the award coordinator’s name, the selection committee, and how the nominees are selected. If you have specific questions about an award please contact the award coordinator.

Award Name: Paul Gray Award for Public Service

Award Coordinator Title: Program Coordinator for Student Engagement and Outreach

Managing DLC: PKG Center for Public Service

Award is for: One faculty member.

How are nominations reviewed: TBD

Selection criteria: Nominees are scored from 0-10 on the major categories of Creative and Effective Courses Related to Community Expertise, or a Community-Identified Issue, Inspiring and Supportive of MIT students' Service Efforts, Addressing pressing social or environmental issues through research and Leading or Supporting A Service initiative that Respectfully Engage Communities External to MIT.

How are recipients selected: The scores given by the committee

Selection committee titles: Three to four faculty members and the PKG Director

Award Contact Email: awards-gray@mit.edu