The Awards Convocation is one of MIT’s largest awards ceremonies, drawing on offices, departments, and people from across the Institute including the arts, athletics, student life, academics, alumni, staff, faculty, and students.

Below is pertinent information regarding the award, the award coordinator’s name, the selection committee, and how the nominees are selected. If you have specific questions about an award please contact the award coordinator.

Award Name: Priscilla King Gray Awards for Public Service

Award Coordinator Title: Program Coordinator for Student Engagement and Outreach

Managing DLC: PKG Center for Public Service

Award is for: One undergraduate and one graduate student.

How are nominations reviewed: TBD

Selection criteria: Nominees are scored from 0-10 on the major categories of Exceptional Dedication, Community Engagement, and Positive Social/Environmental Change at MIT or Beyond.

How are recipients selected: Based on the scores given by the committee

Selection committee titles: The committee will be composed of two to three MIT staff colleagues (not PKG Center), one or two students, Priscilla King Gray’s official designee, and the PKG Director

Award Contact Email: awards-gray@mit.edu